Notes for Wednesday, July 10th, 2019

For ALL:

Happy Wednesday! We are halfway done with week two of our program, so let's make sure that our first session campers enjoy their last few days here at Emerson!

As always, take advantage of breakfast in the dining hall, which is from 7:00AM-9:00AM

Interns

Interns, it's week two of your jobs, so hopefully you've gotten into the swing of things! Give yourselves some time to get some breakfast and, as usual, don't forget to stop by the office before you leave to check out with Jen or Jo. It is IMPERATIVE that you all sign out in the office every day. In addition, make sure you sign back in at the office when you return. Set your alarms, get some rest, and don't forget your Charlie card!

IMPORTANT - For ALL:

A Guide to Swapping Your Linens - There is a linen swap today from 6PM-8PM on the 4th floor outside of ROOM 404. Here are your instructions for swapping your linens: Bundle up your sheets, pillowcase, and towels together. Keep your blanket separate. Visit the swap location where you will dump your linens into big blue carts. Check in with the summer conference staff to receive a new pack for your bed.

Afternoon Sign Up

3:30 PM - USS Constitution & Tall Ships with Jameson. Take a walk through history at one of Boston's "must-see" attractions! Come aboard USS Constitution, "America's Ship of State," ("Old Ironsides") and meet the active duty sailors who are part of her legacy today. The tall ships are conveniently located on the Freedom Trail, so charge your cameras & be prepared for a beautiful day along the waterfront. Dress comfortably, wear sunscreen, and bring a photo ID. FYI - the ship is free to visit.
